The team conducted English courses for World Vision Lebanon staff in August 2020 and is considered to be a reliable language course supplier and very responsive. We had a good experience, the staff feedback was positive, and they were flexible in terms of conducting the sessions based on our staff time, changing sessions and timing based on work demands.

Translation & Interpretation

AVSI - NGO

The team has been very reliable and professional. They are able to provide translation and interpreting services in many languages, especially in Italian, and we greatly recommend them for such services.
