

Edubeyond

Edubeyond is an educational and training institution with a mission to empower individuals through comprehensive education, cultural, and training programs, equipping them with the knowledge, skills, and mindset necessary to thrive in an ever-evolving world. Thanks to a close collaboration with Colegio De España, Edubeyond has become a pioneer in providing the highest quality linguistic and cultural education for individuals, helping them develop a strong sense of responsibility and openness.

Salamanca

Salamanca's old city was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1988. In 2002 Salamanca shared the title of European Capital of Culture along with Bruges in Belgium. Also, it attracts thousands of international students thanks to its infrastructure and safety.

Colegio de España

Launched in 1973, Colegio de España has shaped thousands of students and teachers with specialized Spanish language and culture courses. They are closely related to the majestic Universidad Pontificia de Salamanca and fully accredited by the Instituto Cervantes.
